"Something has gone wrong with our nation, ...

The trouble is not material...

What we lack is a righteous and dynamic faith."

John Foster Dulles

War or Peace, Our Spiritual Need, pg 251

"For, as Jesus warned, those material things can readily become the rust that corrodes men's souls."

John Foster Dulles

War or Peace, Our Spiritual Need, pg 253

"We seem to have lost the spirit which animated Lincoln when he said of our Declaration of Independence... hope for the world for all future time. ..."

John Foster Dulles

War or Peace, Our Spiritual Need, pg 252

“For this is what America is all about. It is the uncrossed desert and the unclimbed ridge. It is the star that is not reached and the harvest that is sleeping in the unplowed ground.”

Lyndon B. Johnson

"There is a great work to be done. The foundations of the new world must be laid by those who have the courage to change the old; by those whose arteries are still soft and clear, whose minds are still active, and hearts still generous."

Earl Warren

"We must look at the lens through which we see the world, as well as the world we see, and understand that the lens itself shapes how we interpret the world."

Stephen R. Covey

Ahmad Sultan

American Youth Movement

"At the end, although this idea is a huge task that might seem far from achievement, yet our country has lived a similar example. As the pioneers crossed the Atlantic, from east to west, for a hope of a better life in the new world, I believe we can cross the ocean of diversity to create a new world with an even better life. The scale and form of the grounds we are starting from is something the first waves of immigrants, probably, have never dreamt or envisioned would ever exist."

Toward Establishing a Unique Civilization: Integrating Diversity

American Youth Movement

"This is not an easy job, nor traveling on a paved road because it is about purifying our souls and reining ourselves to be godly men and women as we strive to reach the peaks of humanity. This is done, not in isolation from the world, rather as we go through the hardships of earning our living, raising our families, serving our communities, country and in all other pursuits of life."
